

Tann personal-care products

Bodylotion and Hair & Body

Grown wild, processed by hand 10% nature, 100% different.

There where the nature all her magnificence, and there where the plants are given special power to the people, is the perfect place of Tann* -in the mountains there is as well as the homeland of the producers of all the Tann* products.

In this place, we create natural cosmetics and care-products, which are looking for well-being and prettiness. The extraordinary quality of our natural products based on raw materials controlled wild harvesting. Herbs and plants selected from their own natural habitat. The people gather these raw materials gentle by hand. In any phase from the harvest until the filling (especially neutral climate) you can find the polarity light and darkness, movement and calm, warmth and coldness.

Tann

licht * luftig * g'sund

Rose hip

Active component-description

The orange-red spurious fruits of the alpine rose count as antioxidant, anti-inflammatory and pain relieving. The oil of rose hip dispose of saturated fatty acids, vitamin C, and vitamin A, and appear positive on back-formation of acne and skin healing.

The remarkable high active component improves the oxygen supply of the somatic cells, revised renovation of the cells and regulation of the metabolism of the skin, regeneration and tightening of the skin. As well, the rose hip is good for prevention of cold-disease, asthma and flu. The rose of hip assist of gum bleeding, periodontosis, burden-, and gall-kidney disorders as well as urinary tract infection. Today you can find many studies that verify the effectivity of rheumatism, arthrosis, arthritis and arteriosclerosis.

Product description: Tann Body lotion with rose hip and marigold

Healthy and cultivated. This body lotion of virgin olive oil and bees wax nourish the skin with useful vitamins and mineral nutrients. The rich part of essential nutritive substances from mature rose hips as well as marigold and nature orange peel oil stimulate the cell metabolism, regenerate and tightening skin and provide for a smooth and velvety feeling.

Tann

licht * luftig * g'sund

Cedar

Active component-description

The "Cypress of the North" is one of the oldest medical plants in the Alps. Their berries were a favored disinfectant as well as a diuretic- and blood purification aid as well as to apply for rheumatism. Externally to apply the cedar is good for blood circulation, toward muscular tension, rheumatism, acne, skin eruption, cellulitis and for disinfection of lesions. Also for the body care, cedar is a perfect disinfectant, stimulating and efficient for the veins, stimulate the relaxation of the musculature and sinews, helps in case of muscle ache and heavy and tired legs.

In the folk medicine the cedar helps in case of kidney disease, bladder infection as well as against dysfunction of metabolism. The cedar-berries used for digestion-troubles as well as exhalations, full consciousness, sickness, diarrhea, pyelonephritis, and in case of gallstones and bladder infection.

Product description: Tann - Hair & Body with cedar and blackberry leaf.

Healthy and cultivated. A mild, naturally moisturizing composition of soap with vitalized and deodorant essences. A bioactive care product of burdock root, thyme and fresh blackberry leaves arrange for clarification of the skin. The products are regenerative, disinfectant and vitalize skin as well as hair.